

The John Krauland, Jr. Foundation is proud to announce The John Krauland, Jr. Scholarship for a student from Knoch, Deer Lakes, or Seneca Valley School Districts. The foundation is seeking students, who have demonstrated outstanding achievement in school, have participated in a high school sport or extracurricular, and are highly involved in their church or volunteering in your community. The recipient will receive $1,500 towards tuition. Recipient of the scholarship is eligible for renewal up to four years, provided that the student maintains a cumulative 3.0. To be eligible, the applicant must be a high school senior and plan to attend a four-year college or university in the fall of 2024. To apply, students must complete an application, submit three letters of recommendation from: a teacher, coach, and someone who facilitates at the applicant's church or someone overseeing volunteering, official transcript, and a one-page essay.

Completed applications must be submitted by April 21, 2024 (John's birthday) by e-mailing the foundation at jkmemorialfoundation@gmail.com.

Thank you,
Diane Krauland Koegler
